

Biological Recording for Conservation Management

Annual Conference and Exhibition

Saturday 28th March 2020, Ron Cooke Hub, University of York

09:00	Registration
09:30	Welcome and introduction by Sarah White , Yorkshire Naturalists' Union
09:40	Keynote address: Rachel Bice , Yorkshire Wildlife Trust
10:10	Gordon Haycock , Haycock and Jay Associates Ltd Monitoring impacts of conservation management in the Yorkshire Dales
10:30	Wendy English and Wendy Holliday , Whitby Naturalists' Club Buckthorn for Brimstones Project
10:45	Quickfire talks from all exhibitors
11:00	Tea and coffee
11:30	Sue Hull , University of Hull Building biodiversity into Runswick Bay coastal defences
11:45	Dan McAndrew , Harrogate Borough Council Title tbc – biodiversity data use within a Local Authority
12:00	Robyn Guppy , Haycock and Jay Associates Ltd Species-rich neutral grassland management on roadside verges
12:15	Panel Q&A with all speakers from the morning sessions
12:30	Lunch
14:00	Simon Pickles , North and East Yorkshire Ecological Data Centre Introduction to afternoon session
14:20	Richard Baines , Yorkshire Coast Nature North Yorkshire Turtle Dove Project
14:40	Sam Newton , North York Moors National Park Past, Present and Future - a NYMNP perspective on Biological Recording
15:00	Tea and coffee
15.30	Africa Gomez , University of Hull and Dick Shillaker , YNU City of Dragons: A 2019 survey of Dragonflies and Damselflies in Hull
15:50	Heather Davison-Smith , Yorkshire Marine Nature Partnership Working collaboratively for Yorkshire's marine and coastal environment
16:05	Richard Wilson , Richard Wilson Ecology Limited The Swarming Hordes: What would invertebrates tell us if they could speak?
16:20	Panel Q&A with all speakers from the afternoon sessions
16:35	Closing remarks by Simon Pickles , NEYEDC. Conference ends at 16:45pm.